

Taxation in the Czech Republic / obligations of the taxpayer at the end of 2024

webinar

This webinar is designed to provide a basic understanding of the taxation system in the Czech Republic and the specific tax obligations that taxpayers-foreigners must fulfill. You will receive information on how your tax residency status impacts the scope of income you are liable to report in the Czech Republic and also what potential tax benefits you may apply. We will show you a practical example of how the personal income tax return is prepared.
